

Mrs. Edwin F. Sweet to Entertain Michigan D. A. R. Delegates at Tea

Members of Congress and Their Wives Invited to Meet Them.

Mrs. Edwin F. Sweet, wife of Congressman Sweet of Michigan, is entertaining at a tea this afternoon at 5 o'clock at her residence in Sixteenth street in honor of the delegates to the D. A. R. congress from Michigan. Invited to meet them are the members of the Congressional delegation from Michigan and their wives and a number of other people from Michigan in Washington.

Assisting Mrs. Sweet in receiving her guests will be Mrs. Raynor, vice president general; Mrs. Arthur Parker, State regent of Michigan; Mrs. L. T. Powell, regent of the Great Lakes chapter; Mrs. William Alden Smith, wife of Senator Smith of Michigan; and Mrs. Townsend, wife of Congressman Townsend of New Jersey.

The tea, which will be adorned for the occasion with a centerpiece of yellow spring blossoms and candles, will be held in the dining room. The reception hall and drawing room will be decorated with branches of doctored blossoms, apple blossoms, and pink and white spring flowers.

Dixie Dance Given. For Memorial Home.

Mrs. Belle C. Riley, president of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, received the guests at the Dixie dance given last evening in the ballroom of the Raleigh Hotel for the benefit of the Confederate Memorial Home. Assisting Mrs. Riley were Mrs. George S. Covington, first vice president; Mrs. J. E. Mulcare, chairman of the entertainment committee; Mrs. Drury C. Ludlow, Mrs. W. W. Finley, Mrs. Ben Johnson, Mrs. Fletcher, wife of Senator Fletcher, and Mrs. W. H. Saunders.

Miss Sue Riley was chairman of the young ladies' floor committee, assisted by Mrs. Archibald Young, Mrs. Belle Riley, and Mrs. J. E. Mulcare.

Palms, flags and clusters of red and white spring blossoms formed the decorations for the occasion, and an orchestra played throughout the evening for the dancers.

Miss Lillian Hamner Bride of Z. B. Lloyd.

The marriage of Miss Lillian Hamner, daughter of Mrs. Katherine Hamner, to Zachariah B. Lloyd, of Maryland, took place at 7 o'clock last evening in St. Paul's Catholic Church, the Rev. Joseph R. Heffernan, of Newark, N. J., a cousin of the bride, officiating, assisted by the Rev. P. J. O'Connell.

Palms, Easter lilies, and American Beauty roses adorned the church for the occasion.

The bride, who was escorted and given in marriage by her brother, John J. Hamner, wore a handsome gown of white chamoisee and antique lace. Her long tulle veil was arranged with a wreath of white roses and carried a shower bouquet of white roses, white orchids, and lilies of the valley.

Miss Margaret Hamner, who was her sister's maid of honor, wore a gown of white crepe and gold embroidery. She also wore a large hat of the same material as her gown, trimmed with plumes and carried an armful of Bridemaid roses.

William J. Neal, of Maryland, was best man for Mr. Lloyd, and the ushers were Edward R. Hamner, Raymond T. Holden, Lorenzo Gardner, of Maryland, and Dr. Harry Paul Lantz.

The wedding ceremony in the church was followed by a reception in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Katherine Hamner, at 1800 K Street, N. W.

Mrs. John J. Hamner, who assisted her son-in-law and daughter in receiving their guests, wore a gown of white satin, trimmed with duchess lace and crystal embroidery.

Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd left for their honeymoon trip. Mrs. Lloyd traveled in a smart suit of gray cloth, with a purple hat.

CLASS IS CONFIRMED BY BISHOP HARDING

Thirty-two Adults Are Received In Church By Episcopal Divine.

A class of thirty-two members, including several adults, was confirmed at Christ Church, Washington parish, last evening by the Rt. Rev. Alfred Harding, Bishop of Washington. The service was an elaborate one, with music given by a vested choir under the direction of W. Arthur Storr, who has been choirmaster at Christ Church for ten years.

Following the service Bishop Harding held a long private conference with the new vestry, which is favorable to the rector, the Rev. A. S. Johns, as respects the contention in the parish over the boys' brigade. Bishop Harding talked at length of the strife in the parish which resulted in the ousting at the parish meeting Easter night of those vestrymen opposed to the rector.

An echo of that fight comes in the announcement of the confirmation of the Rev. Mr. Johns that "stringent restrictions have already been adopted to prevent outsiders from renting pews solely for voting purposes at parish meetings." Charges were made before the parish meeting by each side, but the other was doing this recruiting. The interior of the church is to be beautified. It is announced that money raised by women of the parish.

Christ Church, Washington parish, is the oldest Episcopal Church in Washington, dating back to 1794.

Dr. Stokes to Lecture.

Dr. William Stokes, Surgeon General of the Navy, will deliver an address on "The Dangers and Diseases Incident to Certain Occupations," under the auspices of the Medical Society of the District in the Public Library, tonight at 8 o'clock. This lecture, like those preceding it, is free, and the Medical Society urges a general attendance of the public.

General Greely and Wife Dinner Party Hosts

Maj. Gen. A. W. Greely, U. S. A., retired, and Mrs. Greely, were hosts at a small dinner party last night in honor of the former Secretary of War and Mrs. J. M. Dickinson, and Gen. Horace Porter. A small company was asked to meet them.

Among the box holders for the entertainment to be given by the University of Virginia Glee Club, at the Columbia Theater, on Friday afternoon, April 25, at 4:30 o'clock, for the benefit of the Confederate Memorial Home are Mrs. Marion Butler, District President, U. D. C.; Mrs. James L. Blayden, Miss Beale Bester Kibbey, R. Walton Moore, and Hon. H. D. Flood. Miss Genevieve Clark will be among the young ladies who will sell programs on the occasion.

Miss Sue Riley will represent the Robert E. Lee Chapter, and Miss Caroline Norton will represent the Winnie Davis Chapter in the sale of the program.

Christ Child Society Meets This Afternoon.

Mrs. W. E. Montgomery and Mrs. James Dudley Morgan, assisted by Miss Alice Riggs, Miss Jane Riggs, and Miss Ruth Perkins will preside at the tea table this afternoon after the annual meeting of the Christ Child Society at H. Carter, widow of Senator Carter, will preside at the meeting for which invitations were sent out recently by the president and board of managers of the society.

The annual reports will be read and an address will be made by the Rev. William J. Kerby, D. D.

There will be an exhibition of the work done by the children which will be open at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Thomas Scully Box Party Hostess.

Mrs. Thomas Scully, wife of Congressman Scully, was hostess at a box party yesterday afternoon at the Columbia Theater for the Schumann-Heink recital. The guests were Mrs. Martine, wife of Senator Martine; Miss Wood, wife of Congressman Wood; Mrs. McCoy, wife of Congressman McCoy; Townsend, wife of Congressman Townsend; and Mrs. Kinkadee, wife of Congressman Kinkadee, all of New Jersey.

Society Practically In Semi-Mourning.

Invitations for social functions are being recalled right and left in society circles because of the atmosphere of gloom occasioned by the Titanic disaster. Because of the close relationship with Major Butt at the White House, and in sympathy with Mrs. Clarence Moore, now prostrated at her home, on Massachusetts avenue, society is practically in semi-mourning.

The Hunt ball, scheduled for tomorrow night at the Chevy Chase Club, has been indefinitely postponed. This was to have been the most brilliant event of the spring season, with Mrs. Taft to receive the guests. Major Butt and Clarence Moore were members of the committee, and Mr. Moore was for years master of the house.

The Austro-Hungarian Ambassador and Baroness Hengelmüller have received the cards for the dinner they were to have given tonight at the embassy, and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont, who were to have entertained in honor of the Ambassador and Mrs. Hengelmüller Saturday evening, have also changed their plans.

Mrs. L. P. Wadsworth was hostess at a large dinner last evening at the Highlands in honor of the Michigan delegates to the D. A. R.

The board of lady managers of the Northern Dispensary and Emergency Hospital, 3121 Fourteenth street northwest, will have a linen shower on Tuesday next, from 3 to 5 o'clock, at the hospital, when they hope to greet all their friends. Linen of all sorts is also surgeon's suits, cotton and bandages. Refreshments will be served.

Chicago Woman to Head Children's Bureau

The President has appointed Miss Julia G. Latrop, of Chicago, as chief of the new Children's Bureau. Miss Latrop is a graduate of the University of Chicago, and is a member of the board of charities of Illinois, and is a graduate and a trustee of Vassar College.

She is the first woman ever appointed a bureau chief by this Government. The salary of the office will be $5,000 annually, and the office will also have an assistant chief, a private secretary, a statistical expert, two special agents, and seven clerks.

Seen in the Shops

One of the latest and most popular modes of wearing the hair calls for the use of a back comb. These are to be found at a hair shop on Thirteenth street, between F and E, in a variety of individual styles. There are no two combs alike, and the colors and sizes will suit any gown or taste. Tortoise shell, imitation amber, and real amber are used for the body of the combs, with trimmings of gold, silver, and platinum set with stones, worth from $4 to $50. Mourning sets in dull and shiny jet are very attractive and reasonable in price. Sets, including side combs and back comb, all of real amber, perfectly plain, are $35. A beautiful comb of imitation amber is finished with a band of gold filigree one inch and a half wide, set with four large sapphires. The price of this comb is $75.

A department store on Eleventh street is displaying in its O street window some very pretty caps of Swiss net shadow lace and ribbon, in round, pointed, and "Spring Maiden" models. They are appropriate for street, dancing, or outdoor wear, and are from 50 cents to $3.98 in price.

Ferns for the table and parlor are rarely hard to find, and do not often last longer than a few weeks, so that it is an unnecessary expense to have a supply of them. Mixed ferns, maiden-hair, asparagus, and hardy ferns, at 50 cents, may be gotten at a florist's shop on F street, between Ninth and Tenth. These are mostly used for the table, parlor ferns being larger, with long leaves. A variety sells for 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.50.

Coat chains for women, to be worn with strictly tailored suits, are to be found at a jeweler's shop at street, near Twelfth. The solid gold chains are from $4.50 up to $20, and the gold-filled may be had as low as $1.50. A very pretty solid gold chain with plain gold buttons was $4.50. The watch is worn in the outside coat pocket with the chain attached to the coat label by the button.

White serge, plain, and in stripes, is very popular this season, and is used both for separate skirts and suits. Navy blue and white serge with pin stripes are being sold at an even lower price. A striped flannel for blazers in fifty-four getting away from the hospital yesterday, but had enjoyed less than twelve hours of freedom when she was caught shopping in a department store, according to a report from the hospital for the woman. Mrs. Crenshaw Entertains at Luncheon for House Guest.

Mrs. A. P. Crenshaw entertained at luncheon today at her residence in Sixteenth street in honor of her house guest, Miss McNeil, of New York.

The additional guests were Mme. Rivero, wife of the Cuban minister; Mrs. Burrows, wife of former Senator Burrows of Michigan; Mrs. William McNeil, Mrs. Wadsworth, Mrs. Frank Hume, Mrs. Edgar Frisby, and the Misses Crenshaw.

The Misses Roelker, of New York, will return to their home today, after spending several days at the White House.

Miss Alice G. Parker Bride of Henry M. Hoyt.

A quiet wedding took place at the home of former Congressman and Mrs. Richard Wayne Parker, at Hutton Park, West Orange, N. J., yesterday afternoon when their daughter, Miss Alice Gordon Parker, became the wife of Henry M. Hoyt, son of the late Solicitor General Henry M. Hoyt, of Washington, and Mrs. Hoyt.

Only immediate relatives attended the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of white tulle, and the groom wore a tuxedo. The wedding was officiated by Rev. Dr. Frank B. Reazor, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, officiated. The bride, who was unmarried, was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Richard Wayne Parker, and the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt will take a European bridal trip.

The tea which Mrs. Lorton, wife of Mr. Justice Lorton, was to have given this afternoon in honor of Miss Taft and Miss Morrow, her niece, has been indefinitely postponed because of the Titanic disaster.

Mrs. Shelton G. Evans Bride-Tea Hostess.

Mrs. Shelton G. Evans, wife of Dr. Evans, U. S. N., will be hostess at a bridge tea this afternoon at her residence in Q street in compliment to Mrs. Elwood Evans, wife of Major Evans, U. S. A., who has recently been ordered to duty in Washington from the Philippines.

Mrs. Victor Blue and Miss Alice Harriman will preside at the tea table.

Mrs. Leonard Wood, wife of the Chief of Staff of the army, who spent the last ten days in Chattanooga, Tenn., with her sister, Mrs. Key, has returned to Fort Meyer.

Mme. Blano recalled the invitations for the luncheon she was to have given today at the location on account of the Titanic disaster.
